Significant potential extra costs

In the event that NHS staff, your representatives or relatives are unable to provide you with an escort to hospital appointments, we will apply a charge for a care staff escort or nurse escort, plus any transport fees incurred. The current rates are published in the home.

Fee reviews and changes

Fees are reviewed annually in April. We may also review our fees at any other time if:

- a change in law comes into force which impacts on our provision of the services and results in a significant increase in our costs of providing the services
- your care needs (as set out in the Care Plan) change and we make a change to the services you receive
- you request to change the type of room you occupy

We will give you at least 28 days' notice before the revised fees are payable, except where the type of room occupied changes. In this case the change to the fees is applicable from the date you move in to the new room.

Please see our Residential Care Agreement for further information.

Minimum period for self-funding

We ask that any resident who is self-funding provide evidence that they will be able to pay their fees for a minimum period of two and a half years. Details of the financial information that we require is set out in the Residents Application Form which will be supplied at the same time as this key information document.

Guarantors

We may require someone to act as a guarantor on behalf of the resident where the Residential Care Agreement is signed by someone other than the resident, their Power of Attorney or court appointed deputy.

Upfront payments

A room can be held with a non-refundable reservation fee (80% of actual fees) if they plan a future move-in. We may ask for payment of the weekly fees in advance. Any advance payment will be applied in payment of the resident's fees or, if they fail to move in, will be refunded to them in full.

We do not request any upfront payments, such as deposits.

Weekly fees will be collected every 4 weeks, in advance and applied to the resident's account. If the resident does not move in, advance payments of weekly fees will be fully refundable.

Pet policy

Are residents able to have pets within the home?	No
