

Aughton Park care home

Live later life well

Residential, residential dementia and short-stay care in Ormskirk

The home where life flourishes

Aughton Park has long been a place of care and compassion having been built on the site of an old convent.

Designed and built by Norman Ibbotson, the home won the prestigious Pinders Design Award in 2003 for the quality of the building. In March 2004, Aughton Park opened a new unit specifically designed for residents living with dementia.

The home combines beautiful historic architecture with modern comfort, creating a peaceful and welcoming environment for all residents.

Set in the affluent area of Aughton, the home is just a short walk from Aughton Park train station, making it convenient for visiting family and friends.

At Aughton Park, the blend of history, comfort, and excellent care makes it a truly special place to call home.

The facilities here are excellent - the rooms are spacious, the lounges are comfortable, and the atmosphere is lovely. I wouldn't want Mum to be anywhere else

Gardens for all seasons

The innovative and secure, circular garden at Aughton Park was designed with dementia care in mind, allowing residents to safely explore the outdoors without feeling lost.

Our landscaped gardens invite you to appreciate the fresh air and if you have green fingers, we encourage you to tend the plants, seasonal pots and flowerbeds in this peaceful setting.

Our well-kept plantings, and cosy seating areas make it a favourite spot for relaxation and catching up with family and friends.

For the slightly cooler days, the garden room a beautifully converted conservatory, provides a perfect place to relax and enjoy the outdoor views. You can still sit and appreciate the outdoors while staying warm and comfortable. Residents often take their fresh coffee from the volunteer-run café into this bright and comfortable sunroom.

At Aughton Park, the garden isn't just a place to sit - it's a space to enjoy, explore, and feel at home.

A taste of home

Our food is fresh, comforting, and tailored to residents' tastes. The home's dedicated kitchen team works closely with residents to create menus filled with well-loved classics. Roast dinners are served twice a week, and dishes like hotpots, stews, and casseroles are firm favourites.

Every mealtime is an opportunity for social connection and celebration. Personalised birthday cakes are made in-house, ensuring each resident's special day is marked with their favourite flavoured treat - whether it's a traditional sponge or something more unique, like sausage lasagna!

Residents also enjoy themed dining experiences, including Italian, Indian, and cheese-and-wine nights, as well as seasonal celebrations such as Burns Night and St. George's Day with traditional menus.

Food is about more than just nourishment - it's about creating moments of joy, having fun and spending time together.

What you can expect at Aughton Park:

- Meals are freshly prepared by our in-house chef.
- Menus are designed around seasonal produce.
- Ingredients are sourced locally wherever possible.

Support that speaks for itself

Our home provides residential, dementia, and respite care, for up to 50 residents in spacious en-suite rooms, which they are encouraged to personalise to reflect their own tastes and make it feel like home.

Aughton Park's residents receive individualised support in a warm, homely setting. The long-serving staff create strong bonds with residents, offering compassionate and person-centred care every day.

The chaplain plays a vital role in the home, leading weekly services and offering spiritual support to residents. For those who prefer, online services are also available, ensuring access to worship and reflection whenever needed.

With a safe, dementia-friendly layout, an IT suite for staying connected with loved ones, and a welcoming coffee shop, Aughton Park balances safety, independence, and community - ensuring every resident feels at home.

Mum has been at Aughton Park for a while now, and I can see how much she has settled. The staff are caring and patient, and they really go above and beyond.

Living later life well

When you think of a care home, what springs to mind?

Life at Aughton Park is full of opportunities to socialise, explore, and engage. With a packed calendar of events, residents enjoy fitness sessions, creative crafts, live music, and themed parties.

A particularly memorable moment was a Seize the Day experience for a former teacher, who had always dreamed of giving an English lesson again. Staff arranged for her to visit Edge Hill University, where she attended a lecture, enjoyed lunch, and was recognised for her dedication to education.

“ It was such a special day for her - she was absolutely glowing with pride. She felt like herself again, even for just a few hours.

Staff Member

Residents also enjoy trips to Southport for fish and chips, scenic drives, and outings to the Dog and Gun pub. Seasonal celebrations bring the home to life, with summer fairs, Christmas markets, and 'Aughton Park's Got Talent,' where staff perform and residents act as judges.

“ There's always something happening here - every day is a chance to create new memories.
