The home with an historic building

Imagine living in a converted grade 2 listed Georgian country manor house dating from 1812, that's surrounded by beautiful gardens and rich history. That's life at Stones Place.

From the original fireplaces to the high ceilings, the home blends traditional charm with all the modern comforts you'd expect.

Outdoors, the gardens are alive with life - residents love spotting foxes, squirrels, and even the occasional deer during our popular "Spring Watch" sessions. These little moments of joy make every day special.

Situated just minutes from local shops and cafes, Stones Place is perfectly placed for a life that's as peaceful or active as you want it to be. Whether you're enjoying a sunny stroll on the terrace, relaxing in the lounge, or catching up with friends, this is a home that truly feels like home.

The team make huge efforts to make events memorable for the residents and special for their families. The environment is kept spotlessly clean and tidy, and the food is of good quality and variety.

Gardens that grow memories

Our gardens are more than just a pretty view - they're the heart of Stones Place life.

Residents love getting involved with our gardening project and alongside local volunteers have formed the pot-gang club who do everything from planting seeds to tending the allotment - watching their hard work grow.

It's not just about the flowers - we also grow chillis, potatoes, carrots, tomatoes and much more. There is something incredibly rewarding about nurturing life and sharing it with others to enjoy, and much of what is produced will end up on your dinner plate.

The extensive garden has lovely areas to wonder through with lots of seating and sunny corners for relaxing.

The terrace is the perfect spot for a cup of tea or catching up with friends while taking in the view. And if you're lucky, you might spot one of our furry garden visitors, from playful squirrels to elegant deer.

At Stones Place, our gardens aren't just outdoor spaces - they're where connections grow, laughter echoes, and memories are made.

Meals that celebrate every story

Our residents agree that food at Stones Place is about more than just eating - it's about coming together, sharing stories, and creating moments of joy. Every dish is lovingly prepared by our kitchen team, who know how to whip up meals that feel just like home.

Fish & Chip Fridays are a firm favourite, bringing back memories of seaside holidays, while Sunday roasts make every weekend feel special. And let's not forget Chef Graham's famous chicken curry - so good it's become a regular on the menu!

Seasonal celebrations are a big deal here. From Christmas cookies to summer strawberry feasts during Wimbledon, there's always a reason to indulge. Residents also get to explore new flavours during taster days, sampling dishes from around the world. At Stones Place, every meal is a chance to connect, celebrate, and feel at home.

Full marks to the domestic staff and the chef - meals beautifully presented and tasty. Kevin, the Italian Greyhound, is a wonderful bonus!

Living later life well

When you think of a care home, what springs to mind?

Ask any resident at Stones Place, and they will tell you there's never a dull moment. There's always a packed calendar of activities, from craft sessions and sing-alongs to carpet bowling and yoga. The Lincoln Ukulele Band is a regular visitor, filling the home with music and laughter.

Seasonal celebrations bring everyone together, whether it's the summer fête with BBQs and bunting or the festive magic of our Christmas fair. Residents also love intergenerational activities with local schools and Caterpillar Music sessions, where toddlers and residents' bond over songs and games.

Outings are a big hit too. Trips to Whisby Nature Park, Lincolnshire Wildlife Park, and nearby cafes give residents the chance to explore and enjoy new adventures. And for quieter moments, the chapel and quiet room provide serene spaces to unwind and reflect.

At Stones Place, every day is about celebrating the big and small moments that make life extraordinary.

Life An atmosphere of peaceful calm greets you as soon as you enter Stones Place. We have been impressed by the commitment to meeting her needs as an individual within a Christian context.
