

Beechville care home

A photograph of an elderly Black man with a grey beard and glasses, wearing a light purple button-down shirt. He is sitting in a brown armchair, smiling warmly at the camera. His hands are clasped in his lap. To his left is a green potted plant. Behind him are patterned curtains and a window showing green foliage outside. A person's hand is visible on the right side of the frame, resting on the arm of the chair.

Residential, residential dementia and short-stay in Bolton

The care home where life flourishes

Tucked away in a quiet, leafy corner of Bolton, Beechville is a care home with heart, history, and a real sense of community. Once a Quaker home, it's been lovingly reimaged by MHA to offer top-quality residential and dementia care in a setting that feels safe, familiar, and full of warmth.

Designed for comfort, with spacious en-suite bedrooms, cosy communal lounges, and stylish social spaces where residents can relax and connect. Each floor has its own dining area and chill-out lounges, making it easy to feel at home.

At the heart of our home is the coffee shop. This buzzy little hub is where residents, visitors and our team, gather for a good natter over a proper brew. Whether it's catching up with friends or simply enjoying a quiet moment with a cuppa, life here is all about comfort, connection, and community.

Since our friend moved in, she has been treated with gentleness and care. She was very anxious, but she is always smiling now.

Gardens

for all seasons

Our beautifully landscaped gardens aren't just for show - they're a peaceful little escape where residents can soak up the fresh air, stretch their legs, or just sit back and enjoy the birdsong.

The central courtyard, decked out with benches, bird feeders, and towering trees, makes it the perfect place for a quiet moment or a gentle stroll. A particularly special spot is the summer house, a thoughtful gift from a resident and their family.

For those who love a bit of digging and pottering, the raised flower beds are there for planting, pruning, and getting gloriously muddy. Whether it's gardening, relaxing, or just chatting in the fresh air, Beechville's gardens are a little slice of outdoor bliss.

A taste of home

We make sure that mealtimes aren't just about eating - they're an event, a daily highlight, and a proper feast for the senses. At the helm of the kitchen is our head chef, who isn't just a whizz with a whisk - he's also a chef coach for the region, meaning every dish is top-tier, homemade, and packed with flavour.

The menu? Think roast dinners that taste like Sundays at home, steaming bowls of homemade soup that warm the soul, and full English breakfasts that start the day just right. And because we know everyone has their favourites, residents have a say in what's on the menu, sharing their must-have meals in regular feedback meetings.

Birthdays are a big deal at Beechville. Expect freshly baked cakes, plenty of candles, and a proper singalong. Families can even book the coffee bar for private celebrations, with the kitchen team whipping up a buffet fit for a party.

From theme nights celebrating international cuisine to the much-loved "Sandwich Week", where a different specialty sandwich is served each day, dining at Beechville is varied, enjoyable, and tailored to residents' needs.

Support that speaks for itself

Support that speaks for itself

We don't just see care as support - it's about genuine connections, heartfelt moments, and creating a place that truly feels like home. Whether it's residential or dementia care, every resident gets the right balance of independence and support, all wrapped up in warmth and compassion.

The long-serving team don't just see themselves as carers - they're companions, listeners, and friendly faces who take the time to really know each resident, making every day feel comfortable and familiar. Whether it's sharing a joke, offering a reassuring hand, or simply knowing exactly how someone takes their tea, it's the little things that make the biggest difference.

For those who find comfort in reflection, the home's chaplaincy service holds Sunday gatherings in the coffee shop, creating an accessible space for faith, connection, or just a quiet moment of thought.

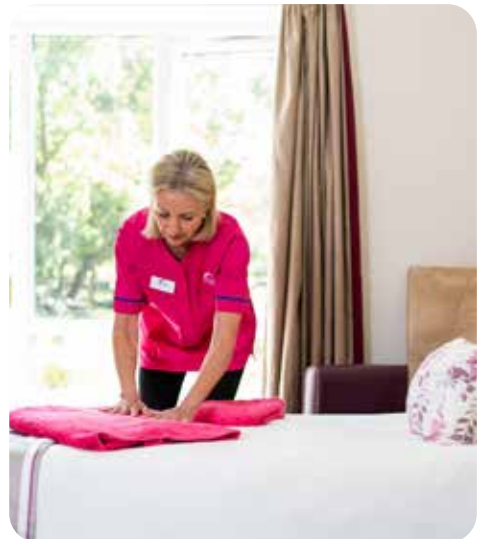

It's this welcoming, heartfelt atmosphere that makes this not just a care home, but a true home.

Our commitments to you:

- You'll remain in control of your care and support. Always.
- You'll be supported by a caring, compassionate team.
- You'll benefit from proven and pioneering therapies.
- You'll be valued and respected in a like-minded community.
- You'll be free to make this home your own – inside and out.

My mother-in-law came to Beechville nearly two years ago. We have found the staff to be extremely friendly and helpful and had a busy December with all the amazing activities, various singers, crafts and coffee afternoons. My mother-in-law has settled in and enjoys the singing and dancing. Credit to them all.

Living later life well

When you think of a care home, what springs to mind?

Life at Beechville is anything but dull - it's a whirlwind of fun, laughter, and plenty of cake. The calendar is packed with bingo nights, arts and crafts, fitness sessions, and even some friendly baking competitions (because who doesn't love a bit of kitchen rivalry?).

Then there are the unexpected delights - like the time llamas came to visit! Yes, actual llamas. They strutted in, stole hearts, and left behind some of the best memories (and photos) ever. On the more refined side, the home also hosts opera performances, bringing a touch of drama and culture to the everyday.

Residents love trips out to Greenhalgh's Bakery for fresh treats, Middlebrook Retail Park, and local parks to stay connected with the community. Seasonal events like Easter egg hunts, summer BBQs, and Christmas raffles bring everyone together, while visits from school kids and scout groups keep the home buzzing with energy and joy.

Here for you...
