

Chapel Fields care home

The care home where life flourishes

Situated in the scenic countryside of Cheshire, Chapel Fields is surrounded by natural beauty and local charm. The home is just a short walk from the vibrant village market, with its bustling Thursday stalls, and a short drive from major cities like Manchester, Liverpool, and Chester.

Designed for comfort and accessibility, the home is organised into four distinct households, allowing residents to transition seamlessly through various care levels. Our 70 spacious en-suite rooms, communal lounges, and cosy library spaces create a warm and welcoming environment.

At Chapel Fields, every detail is designed to create a nurturing environment where residents feel safe, valued, and at home.

My mum spent ten months at Chapel Fields Care Home and received the most excellent care during her time there. The staff were without exception so caring and helpful throughout Mum's stay.

Gardens that spark connection and calm

The beautiful, enclosed garden at Chapel Fields provides residents with a safe and serene space to enjoy the outdoors.

Raised garden beds, vibrant flower displays, and a kitchen garden create opportunities for a bit of hands-on activity for green fingered residents or just for a bit of outdoor relaxation.

The garden's patio seating areas are perfect for fair weather tea breaks and conversations with visiting loved ones on warm summer days. Seasonal events like barbecues and volunteer gardening days bring the space to life, fostering connection with the community and joy among residents and families.

Our gardens are more than just outdoor spaces - they're places to find peace, foster connections, and celebrate the beauty of nature.

The gardens are beautiful, and it's wonderful to see residents enjoying the fresh air and tending to the flowers and vegetable patches.

Sweet comfort in every bite

We believe that dining should be about more than just food - it's about creating moments of joy and connection. Every meal is freshly prepared in-house, catering to diverse tastes and dietary needs.

Resident favourites like fish and chips are sometimes served in the traditional seaside style of paper wrappings to add a bit of fun and we follow that with homemade bread and butter pudding, it all evokes nostalgic comfort.

Special events like National Pie Week and themed dining days add variety to our menus. The kitchen team's creativity shines in dishes like authentic Thai cuisine for world food days, ensuring residents always have something exciting to look forward to.

At Chapel Fields, mealtimes are an opportunity to enjoy delicious food and the company of a vibrant, caring community.

The food was excellent, and her room was comfortable. The meals were always fresh, and the staff paid close attention to dietary needs.

Living later life well

When you think of a care home, what springs to mind?

Life here is vibrant and fulfilling, with activities designed to bring residents together and inspire engagement through a busy schedule of activities, outings, and events.

Weekly entertainers, themed events, and intergenerational activities with local schools create a lively atmosphere.

Residents enjoy animal therapy sessions with visiting alpacas, ponies, and even a skunk, which is kept at arms-length by the less adventurous amongst us.

Regular reminiscence activities for those living with dementia include outings such as canal boat trips. Seasonal celebrations, include Burns Night and Chinese New Year and bring festive highlights, cultural richness and joy to the home.

Every day is an opportunity to celebrate life, build connections, and create meaningful memories in a warm and supportive home.
