

Anjulita Court care home

Residential, residential dementia, nursing, palliative and short-stay care in Bedford

The home with the countryside views

When you step into Anjulita Court, it isn't just the countryside views or the thoughtfully designed architecture that linger in your memory. It's the uplifting energy of a home that radiates warmth, positivity, and an unyielding commitment to making each day meaningful for every resident.

Anjulita Court is a purpose-built care home located on the edge of Bedford town, offering peaceful countryside views while remaining easily accessible via local transport links, making it ideal for visiting family and friends. Nestled near a country park, the home features beautifully landscaped gardens and patio areas that allow residents to enjoy the outdoors.

Our guiding principle is simple: whatever it takes to make residents smile, we do it. Whether it's the buzz of a lively music festival, the joy of themed cultural days, or the peaceful solace of our lovely care home, every moment is infused with care and purpose.

This is a home where joy and togetherness are at the heart of everything we do. Every day is an opportunity to create moments that matter, and we take that mission to heart.

Ernie Botley, Home Manager

Gardens that spark connection and calm

We are proud of our grounds which have become an extension of the home's welcoming spirit, offering residents a tranquil and inspiring connection to nature.

Safe, scenic pathways wind through wraparound gardens. The courtyard has a fishpond and a calming fountain - a favourite spot for reflection. Residents can stroll among vibrant flowerbeds, relax on sunny patio areas, or enjoy the sights and sounds of birdsong from comfortable resting space in the central courtyard and the elevated seating area.

Beyond the beauty of our gardens lies a country park that's perfect for nature lovers, offering fresh air, scenic walks, and a chance to connect with the outdoors. Our garden space also plays host to family visits, seasonal celebrations, and activities that bring our community together.

The natural environment is as practical as it is beautiful. Raised flower beds invite residents to garden at their leisure, and a variety of bird feeders attract local robins and finches, bringing life and movement to the space.

Sweet comfort in every bite

Menus are shaped through regular feedback, offering a delightful mix of themed food days, resident-led tastings, and classic favourites like Sunday roasts and sticky toffee pudding.

Baking is something we love to do and with personalised birthday cakes and sweet treats, we make every occasion truly memorable.

Everything is always very clean, the food is very good and the staff are warm and friendly. I have experienced a few care homes over the years and Anjulita is by far one of the best I have seen. It gives me great peace of mind knowing my mother is safe and very well looked after.

Our dedicated coordinators ensure everyone can engage in ways that bring happiness and fulfilment.

Each week, our chaplains and local volunteer preachers organise services and 'Songs of Praise' sessions for residents who wish to participate.

Art corners encourage creativity, while sensory activities like gardening and our innovative "magic table" provide meaningful stimulation for those living with dementia. Weekly pet therapy sessions and visits from local schools and churches add to the inclusive, lively atmosphere.

For quieter moments, the sensory room offers a calming retreat with soothing lights and sounds. Residents can join in as much or as little as they want and tailored one-on-one activities ensure everyone feels included.
