

Weston & Queensway House care home

Nursing dementia and short-stay care in Stafford

The care home where life flourishes

Weston & Queensway House are located on the outskirts of the historic town of Stafford adjacent to the county hospital. The two homes are linked by a convenient walkway, creating a connected environment between the two homes.

Queensway House provides accommodation for up to 22 residents with enduring mental health needs and caters for younger people as well as other ages. Weston House caters for up to 48 older individuals with dementia and nursing care requirements.

The homes are surrounded by amenities and local landmarks such as Victoria Park and Stafford Castle. Victoria Park is just two miles away, offering residents and their families access to its award-winning flower gardens, bird aviary, and serene riverbanks.

At Weston & Queensway House, every detail is designed to create a space where residents feel at home, supported, and connected to the local community.

Every day, I feel privileged to support our residents and ensure they feel safe, valued, and truly at home. It means so much to me to create an environment where they're not just cared for, but genuinely happy and able to enjoy life on their own terms.

Ruth Hazeldine, Home Manager

Gardens that spark connection and calm

The landscaped gardens provide a peaceful retreat filled with vibrant flowers, raised beds, and a fishpond surrounded by greenery. Residents enjoy feeding the tropical fish, spotting wildlife like robins and squirrels, and relaxing in the fresh air.

The grounds also feature cosy cabins for residents and families to enjoy. One cabin is Moroccan-themed, complete with a rocking chair, log burner, and soft furnishings, offering a quiet, private space to unwind. Another, the “Candy Cabin,” serves as a sweet shop where residents can indulge in their favourite treats.

Seasonal garden parties and BBQs bring the community together, while the gardens also offer moments of calm for reflection and connection. At Weston & Queensway House, the gardens are more than just a space - they’re a source of joy and wellbeing for residents.

Sweet comfort in every bite

Mealtimes here are all about comfort, flavour, and bringing people together. With over 25 years of experience, Chef Bruce Eastwood knows just how to create dishes that reflect what residents truly enjoy, from hearty Sunday roasts to fragrant Moroccan tagines, all made fresh each day using locally sourced ingredients.

Menus are regularly updated and shaped by resident feedback, ensuring every plate feels familiar, satisfying, and thoughtfully prepared. The dining spaces are relaxed and welcoming, making every meal feel like home.

Special themed events like Burns Night or Chinese New Year bring extra colour to the calendar, with decorations, music, and dishes that celebrate different cultures. Residents also enjoy getting hands-on in baking sessions, creating everything from biscuits to pastries to share with friends.

Whether it is a savoury favourite or a sweet treat, every mealtime offers more than just nourishment - it is a chance to connect, enjoy, and make the everyday special.

Unlike any other care home

Care is centred around each individual, with a focus on dignity, comfort, and building meaningful relationships. Support is tailored to meet a wide range of needs, including nursing, dementia, and mental health care, delivered with both compassion and expertise.

Queensway offers flat-style living, complete with kitchenettes and private lounges, giving residents the freedom to enjoy a more independent lifestyle in a warm, familiar setting. Weston House is thoughtfully designed to support those living with dementia or nursing needs, with calming layouts that promote ease and comfort in daily life.

Across both settings, en-suite rooms and welcoming communal areas help create a true sense of home. Many staff members have been part of the team for years, bringing consistency and a deep understanding of residents' individual preferences.

With a dedicated team and an environment designed to empower, every resident is supported to live well, in a way that suits them best.

I can't express how lovely everyone at Weston House has been, from going to view the home beforehand to now. The carers are all really lovely and you can tell how much they care about their residents. I would 100% recommend this home to anyone needing to place a loved one in care.

Living later life well

When you think of a care home, what springs to mind?

Life at Weston House is filled with meaningful moments, designed to spark joy, connection, and a sense of purpose. Activities are tailored to individual interests and needs, helping residents stay engaged in ways that feel familiar and fulfilling. Whether it is crafting festive decorations, planting bulbs for spring, or watching significant events like Armistice Day together, each day offers something special.

Music plays a big part in daily life. Weekly sessions with trained music therapists, lively singalongs, and even spontaneous jukebox-style requests on Alexa devices bring rhythm, nostalgia, and smiles to the home.

Seasonal events are another highlight. From sunny garden parties to beach-themed days complete with deckchairs and mocktails, there is always something to look forward to. These gatherings not only lift spirits but also create opportunities for residents, staff, and families to come together and share in the fun.

With outings to local attractions like the Morris Man pub, a dementia café, and St John's Church, every day offers opportunities to create lasting memories and celebrate life.

Here for you...

Whether you're searching for yourself or a loved one, for nursing dementia or short-stay care, our team at Weston & Queensway House will be here to help.

We understand that searching for a care home can be a confusing time for any family. So, we hope it's reassuring to know that our doors are always open. Our advice is always generous. Our residents are always eager to welcome a new character into the fold. And our charitable ethos will always guide everything we do.

We'll be ready to support. Whenever you need us:
